Methvin

318 Cherry Street
College Station, Texas 77842
United States

Phone: (347) 759-6200

Methvin is an online procurement and estimating portal designed for the construction industry and a College Station, Texas company.The Methvin estimating software allows construction contractors to generate cost estimates and winning bids, link worksheets to multiple tasks, set variables, and break tasks into sub-schedules for quick and accurate pricing. Also available is a tendering portal allowing potential contractors and subcontractors to access documentation and send responses through the portal, maintaining a complete audit trail.The company's products are described in detail on its website, including pricing information and other resources.