

Palm Construction School

7448 Universal Boulevard
Orlando, Florida 32819
United States

Phone: (407) 345-0096

Palm Construction School prepares students for the Florida state contractor exam at its Orlando, Florida headquarters and at home. In operation since 1980, Palm Construction School offers classroom instruction at its facilities in Orlando, as well as online preparation and self-paced home study workbooks intended to prepare individuals for the contractor examination as well as offering continuing education classes as required by the state. Its courses include general, building, residential, sheet metal, roofing, air conditioning, pool and spa, plumbing, underground utility, solar, pollutant storage systems, electrical, and specialty contractor licensure.

