Blue Umbrella Waterproofing is a waterproofing contractor in business since 1998, headquartered in Roselle Park, New Jersey. Basement waterproofing is more than just a service. It's a craft that takes years of experience and dedication to truly master. Something owner Steve Karlik fully understands as a third-generation basement waterproofing contractor. Through the years, he continued developing his skills and adopting industry-leading techniques to emerge as a real expert in the field. He applies everything he's learned to help homeowners and business owners across New Jersey stay dry. NJ's trusted waterproofing contractor provides reliable basement waterproofing, crawl space repair, and basement foundation repair. Photographs of some of the company's work and estimate request form can be found through its website.
